APPOINTMENT NOTICE: Carol Hutchins

Australia's largest provider of trainer training MRWED Training and Assessment has appointed a new Financial Controller as the company looks to expand its courses across the country.

Carol Hutchins is a Fellow of the Institute of Certified Chartered Accountants and has more than 15 years experience, predominantly in service industry.

Apart from working with architects, surveyors and management consultants in Australia, she has also worked extensively for companies in America and Europe, including the UPS (United Parcel Services) European head office.

Since moving to Australia four years ago from UK, Carol has been assisting a newly-established children's charity secure government funding.

As the financial controller at MRWED, Carol will report directly to the CEO and founder Marc Ratcliffe and manage all financial aspects of the business.

Carol lives on Bribie Island with her eight year old daughter and enjoys kayaking and yoga.

MRWED is Australia's largest provider of trainer training. Its courses have trained people from CEOs and human resource managers through to frontline managers on the art of engaging and training others.

Recently, MRWED Founder and Principal Marc Ratcliffe was named as one of the world's Top 10 Young Trainers of the Year by Training Magazine (USA). MRWED was also recently named as one of the Top 10 places to work in Australia by BRW magazine and was awarded a 2009 Australian Business Award for Enterprise.

MRWED Training and Assessment is a private Australian Registered Training Organisation (RTO). It has trained more than 12,000 Australians in training and assessor qualifications since it was established in the year 2000.
