

BSB80515 Graduate Certificate in Management (Learning)

Course Overview:

This qualification reflects the roles of individuals who apply substantial specialised skills and knowledge in the field of learning and capability development. In these roles, candidates are required to make significant high level independent judgements in major planning, design, operational and management functions within a learning and development setting.

The qualification specifically relates to professionals or managers in registered training organisations (RTOs) or a Senior Schooling environment, seeking to advance organisational learning and capability.

Course Structure:

There are 4 units in the Graduate Certificate in Management (Learning).

The MRWED program is divided into 2 core units and 2 elective units. These are listed below:

Core Units

- BBLDR801 Lead personal and strategic transformation
- BSBLED802 Lead learning strategy implementation

Elective Units

- TAELED803 Implement improved learning practice
- BSBINN601 Lead and manage organisational change

Key Outcomes:

This program is designed to help candidates to initiate and implement practices that support the management and improvement of learning strategies in an organisational context.

This includes:

- evaluating ways to improve learning practice;
- managing and monitoring learning improvement;
- analysing, and advancing adoption of improved learning practice; and
- enhancing outcomes for learners.

Further to this, it recognises the professional leadership required to improve organisational learning, and the quality of training and assessment products and services.

This includes:

- providing strategic leadership in a dynamic context;
- designing, developing and implementing an organisational learning strategy;
- analysing and improving personal leadership style and professional competence to lead organisational transformation and learning for strategic outcomes;
- leading transformational practices; and
- cultivating collaborative practices.

Career Opportunities:

This qualification will support leaders and managers in any organisation where learning is used to build capacity and harness learning to enhance existing practices and thinking, workforce capability and career development.

Specifically, this qualification is geared towards advancing the capabilities and careers of:

- Learning and Development Managers;
- Learning and Development Consultants;
- RTO Managers; and
- Senior Leaders in a Secondary School or College.

Pre-requisites:

Entry to this qualification is limited to those who:

- Have completed a Bachelor degree in related fields of study; or
- Have completed a Diploma or Advanced Diploma qualification in related fields of study and 2 years equivalent full-time relevant workplace experience at a significant level of leadership and management responsibility and/or complexity in an enterprise; or
- Have three years equivalent full-time relevant workplace experience at a significant level of leadership and management responsibility and/or complexity in an enterprise.

Study Mode:

- Recognition for Prior Learning (RPL)
- Face-to-face (Customised Corporate programs delivered in one of MRWED's national training and assessment centres or onsite at the client's location)

Course Duration:

Learners should expect a duration between six and twelve months (600-1200 hours) to meet the requirements of BSB80515, which is consistent with the AQF volume of learning indicators for a Graduate Certificate qualification.

However, the final duration will depend on the study mode selected. For instance, it is likely that RPL candidates will complete in a much shorter time frame, given that they will be engaged in mainly portfolio-building activities to support their claim for competence, rather than a learning and assessment pathway.

Price:

- RPL = $2495
